Looking

Back

The club lost two of it's giants in 2013, Floyd Katz and Art Schmidt. Two men who helped make the Rams what it is today.

It'll be hard to imagine going to the field and not seeing them there, as they both were fixtures and corner stones of the Rams. Their names were synonymous with the Rams, just about everyone knew them and respected them for their contributions to the club, the field and the work ethics they brought.

Those two men made a difference, they'll be missed by many of us who knew them.

Moving On

As some members move on to new hobbies and new adventures, new faces fill the gap left by those departures.

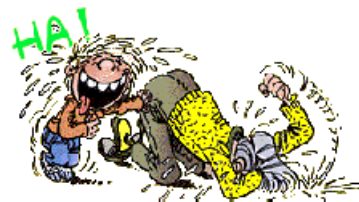

Some leave to pursue other interest, some for health reasons and others who just move. What ever the reason, new members join and the beat goes on.

For those of you who get the newsletter but don't attend the meetings, perhaps now is the time to attend the next meeting and get to know those new members, get involved and be part of the changes and progress the club is making. Renew that old spark and who knows, you may make a difference too? Join us.

Editorial

As my time as Newsletter Editor comes to and end, I need to take this opportunity to thank those who did a lot but don't get the deserved thanks they should for their efforts. Their contributions both in time and money for the membership as a whole over the years needs to be recognized. So thanks to you Tom Young for always being there, never backing away from problems when others would. Dick Cook, always looking to make things better, a friend and motivator. Chuck Bucci, colorful and to the point, a get R'done kind of guy. And last but not least, Russell Knetzger, a man who was there from day one of the Rams and is still doing great things to this very day for the Rams. His contribution both in his personal time and money are unmatched by anyone. Russell held key positions within the Rams and was often seen with his lovely wife out working at the field making a difference. To this day he continues through his efforts to keep helping The Rams and does so without fanfare or seeking personal attention for those contributions, many thanks to all you guys.

You can tell a lot about a woman's mood just by her hands. For instance, if they are holding a gun, she's probably angry.
