Monthly Recap

June In Review

REMINDER: July 22rd is the SWARM Friend Fly (with a rain date set of July 23). The field has been reserved exclusively for rotor-craft use. You are welcome to participate or just stop by and watch.

Summer is here! Somehow you would think I would have more pictures from the field, but I guess not. Let's blame it on the air quality that was bad the last week of the month. But, I did happen to spot John Cseri flying his Robinhood, based on the Curtis Robin from the 1920's.
